

BIOGRAPHY

Carol Jarvis is one of the most in-demand session musicians in the UK. A multi-award-winning trombonist, keyboard player, arranger, orchestrator and voiceover artist, Carol has toured and recorded extensively with stars such as Sting, Queen, Rita Ora, Seal, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, Elbow, Amy Winehouse, Bon Jovi, Ellie Goulding and appeared on many renowned television programs with stars such as MUSE, Harry Connick Jr, Michael Bublé, Taylor Swift and so many more.

Carol can also be found working with internationally renowned ensembles and some of the world's top orchestras such as playing guest principal trombone with the London Symphony Orchestra and lead trombone with the Metropole Orkest.

Regular film and TV session work fills a lot of Carol's diary and she can also be frequently found performing in London's West End shows. She is a professor of trombone at Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music in London and the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester where she, herself, gained the highest qualifications possible. She has been invited to give masterclasses throughout the world, including at the Juilliard School in New York, Lucerne Conservatoire in Switzerland, University of California in Los Angeles, Rice University in Houston, Mexico City University, Lima Conservatoire in Peru and at the Jazz Institute in Graz, Austria. She quite often serves as an outside assessor at UK Conservatoires and abroad, and on international juries for trombone competitions around the globe.

Carol is a former President of the British Trombone Society and is currently President of the International Trombone Festival Board, a post she has held since 2017, and in 2023 became the first female President of the International Trombone Association in its 51 year history.

Carol's orchestrations and arrangements have featured on albums at the top of the UK and US billboard charts, been performed by the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, been recorded at the famous Capitol Studios in Hollywood and also played during the Academy Awards ceremony.

Carol is a Rath Trombones endorsed artist.
